

University of Wisconsin System Administration Academic Staff Committee Statement Regarding Collective Bargaining Enabling Language Legislation from March 17, 2009

The University of Wisconsin System Administration Academic Staff Committee opposes any legislative proposals now and in the future that would grant collective bargaining rights to University of Wisconsin System faculty and academic staff if the legislative proposal stipulates the academic staff collective bargaining unit be separate from the faculty collective bargaining unit at the same institution.